Civil Action No. 03-C-0374

WORLD WRESTLING ENTERTAINMENT, INC.'S MOTION TO VOLUNTARILY WITHDRAW COUNTERCLAIMS WITHOUT PREJUDICE

Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 41(a)(2), counterclaim-plaintiff World Wrestling Entertainment, Inc. ("WWE") respectfully moves to voluntarily withdraw its counterclaims against counterclaim-defendant Albert Patterson ("Patterson") in the above-captioned action without prejudice, and in support thereof states as follows:

1. On or about April 29, 2003, Patterson filed a Complaint against Defendants asserting claims of trademark infringement and unfair competition.
2. As part of Defendants' Answer and Counterclaims dated April 19, 2004, WWE asserted counterclaims against Patterson for (i) abuse of process; (ii) unfair competition under the Lanham Act; (iii) tortious interference; and (iv) trade libel.
3. By Decision and Order dated January 31, 2006, this Court granted Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment dismissing all of Patterson's claims in their entirety.

4. Trial on WWE's counterclaims is scheduled to begin on March 20, 2006, and is expected by the parties to last at least six days.
5. Based on facts learned in discovery as well as other facts known to WWE, it does not appear that Patterson has any money sufficient to pay a judgment rendered against him. Indeed, Patterson has not bothered to pay taxes for decades, claiming he has no income (except evidently what he uses to pay counsel fees to harass WWE). WWE believes the whole point of his harassment of WWE through the years has been to try to get money for nothing.
6. Although WWE believes that its counterclaims are meritorious and indeed ultimately would be successful, WWE does not wish to incur the significant attorneys' fees and expenses that would be required to prepare for trial and to take its counterclaims to judgment faced with essentially no prospect of recovering any damages even if it were to prevail.
7. On February 14, 2006, Patterson filed a Motion for Reconsideration of the Court's January 31, 2006 Decision and Order (the "Motion for Reconsideration"). Defendants filed their Response in Opposition to Patterson's Motion for Reconsideration (the "Opposition") on February 21, 2006. For the many reasons described in detail in Defendants' Opposition, Patterson's Motion for Reconsideration is improper and unwarranted as a matter of fact and law.
8. As discussed at the parties' Final Pretrial Conference, WWE's Petition and Supplemental Petition for Attorneys' Fees and Costs submitted pursuant to the Court's August 29, 2005 Order remain pending before the Court. WWE believes that the entry of such sanctions is warranted and necessary to provide a sufficient deterrent against further abusive conduct by Patterson towards WWE.

Accordingly, WWE respectfully requests that the Court enter an order awarding a specific, monetary sanction against Patterson before entering a final judgment in this action.

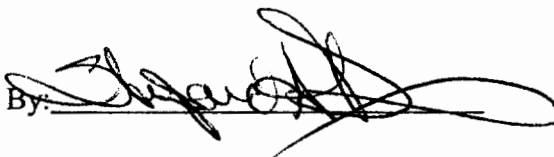

9. WWE requests that it be granted leave to reinstate WWE's counterclaims in the event that Patterson were successful in any appeal of this action.

WHEREFORE, pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 41(a)(2), WWE respectfully requests that, contingent upon the denial of Patterson's Motion for Reconsideration, this Court enter the attached proposed order dismissing WWE's counterclaims without prejudice and granting WWE monetary sanctions in the amount set forth in WWE's Petition and Supplemental Petition for Attorneys' Fees and Costs submitted pursuant to the Court's August 29, 2005 Order.

Respectfully submitted,
